OSTEOPATHY

is a Scientific Method of Healing

by skillful manipulation of the human body, based upon a thorough knowledge of anatomy and physiology. It regards the human system as capable of keeping itself in perfect health when properly aided. It recognizes (1) that the source of health is within us, not without; (2) that all bodily disorders are the result of mechanical obstruction to the free circulation of the vital fluids and forces of the body; and (3) that a diseased body needs something done to it, not something put into it. Its keynote is adjustment.

It is the work of a master mechanic upon the most complicated of machines.

It is the office of the Osteopath not to supply, but to direct the force of natural law; not to put drugs into the body, but to control the remedial agents which are already within it.

Osteopathy treats all disease—acute and chronic.

Osteopathic cures are permanent because they are the result of perfect adjustment, thereby restoring normal nerve force and circulation to all parts of the body.

COLLEGE IN SESSION
THE YEAR ROUND

W. E. GIBSON, President

H. C. INGRAM, Vice-Pres.

POLYTECHNIC BUSINESS COLLEGE
13th and Madison Streets, Oakland.

A Great Industrial Army Needed at Home

Young men under military age and all young women from sixteen to thirty-five can find immediate employment in any of the following professions:

Stenography	Mechanical Engineering	Wireless Telegraphy
Bookkeeping	Civil Engineering	Machine Shop
Morse Telegraphy	Electrical Engineering	Multigraphing
	Automobile Engineering

"Our country needs from ten to twenty millions of skilled workers at home," says Frederick C. Howe, U. S. Commissioner, "to make effective the army it puts in the field."

If you cannot join the ranks of those on the firing line, you can still serve just as patriotically, just as honorably in the great army of skilled workers, by preparing for service in the Field of Business or Industry.

A MAXIMUM PRODUCTION WITH MAXIMUM PRICES

The operation of the law of supply and demand has reached a condition in this country never before known—an unlimited demand with the highest prices for all commodities. This means an increased volume of business, an increased demand for trained men and women in every department of commercial activity; increased opportunities.

Mechanics of all kinds are in great demand. Stenographers were never before in such demand as at the present. This college could locate one hundred good stenographers during the next sixty days. Wireless Operators, Railroad Telegraphers must be trained by the hundreds. Bookkeepers and office assistants are scarce, and so a is absolutely required.

The Polytechnic College is in reality a University of Business and Technical Training. It specializes; it concentrates; its courses are intensified; it eliminates the frills and fads—the "side lines," and goes straight to the fundamentals—and its graduates straight to success.

College in Session the Entire Year and Students Admitted at any Time. Write for Illustrated Catalogue.
